Operated by the owner and producing excellent photographs at a moderate student rate. Better cannot be had elsewhere at similar prices.

All Pot Pourri groups should be made as soon as possible.

Individual senior photographs should be arranged for earlier than has been the case of late. Please start in the fall, and stand back of the Pot Pourri board, as well as the Photographer, by doing your part early in the school year.

This Studio has made the Pot Pourri pictures for twenty-eight years.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS

FOUNDED at Andover, Mass., 1778, by the gifts of Hon. Samuel Phillips and his uncle, Hon. John Phillips. Others have added to the original foundations by endowments of several kinds, and various scholarships have been established. The total endowment is $5,000,000.

Phillips Academy has established very high repute for its broad scholarship, for its elevated ideals, and especially for the practical success which has been attained by its students.

In all the leading professions and every useful avenue of endeavor, its alumni are found among leaders. In all the great colleges, and particularly Yale and Harvard, the graduates of this Academy have for years been distinguished for their thoroughness of preparation and success in their college work. The Academy has also done a useful work in the education of boys who have not gone to college. Especially is it distinguished for its American, democratic spirit, the sons of the wealthiest men in the country mingling with boys who are working their way through school.

The courses of the Academy have thoroughly readjusted and adapted themselves to the highest collegiate requirements. The ability of its faculty, the excellence of its equipment, its library and laboratory facilities, the prestige of honorable history and other advantages and achievements have placed Phillips Academy in the front rank of American schools.

AS our life at Andover draws to a close, it is only natural for us to look back upon the days spent here with their vicissitudes of fortune, — hopes, fears, sorrows, joys, failures, and accomplishments, — and to contemplate the result. We feel glad that we have come here; we are happy to have enjoyed and grasped some of Andover's manifold opportunities for mental, physical, social, and spiritual development and we rejoice that we are sufficiently prepared to enter, as representative Andover men, upon the next step in our lives. We have regrets also, — regrets for slighted opportunities, regrets for mistaken actions, and regrets for complaints and criticisms of the school, occasionally justified but more often unwarranted. As time goes on these pangs will fade completely, overwhelmed by the brighter recollections, and these days will be remembered as some of the most wonderful and beneficial of our lives. This volume, it is hoped, may serve in the future as a link with our school days and as a source of pleasant, joyful reminiscences.

The Board wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Huntress, to Mr. Dye, to the Andover Press, and to all others who have aided in the publication of this book. The members of the POT POURRI Board have earnestly endeavored to have this edition satisfactorily meet the expectations and desires of the class of 1927. We do not expect to escape criticism entirely, but we do close with the hope that the general merit of the 1927 POT POURRI will be better than that of the average school year book and with the knowledge that we have, at least, tried to do our best.

SAMUEL PHILLIPS HALL

CLASS HISTORY

Junior Year

THE Fall of 1923 found us experiencing many fears and thrills before making our bow to Andover Hill. To say the least, when we arrived, we found causes, and many at that, for our premonitions. Surely there is no need to define what they were, for one look around the campus during the first week would have sufficed. We, however, only experienced these and no thrills at all. To cap everything we were put through the "Prep" parade, the big event. At last our working days were over. What a sigh of relief we breathed!

It did not take long to get acquainted. Football absorbed most of the interest. Though the team enjoyed an extremely successful season, we could only battle to a 7-7 tie with Exeter in a sea of mud. The soccer team performed well, but in a close struggle was nosed out in the letter game with Worcester by a 1-0 score. The cross country team did notably well, getting second place in the Harvard schoolboy run. Then came Christmas vacation, and our best and worst "prep" school days were over.

We returned with the realization that we were now something besides just "preps". The first thing we enjoyed was the moving into the splendid Samuel Phillips Hall recitation building. The term moved along swiftly, and we found that the relay team had lost to Exeter in a close race. Soon the Exeter swimming and basketball contests faced us. The former was very close, being lost by a forfeited relay, 37-25. The team was one of Andover's best. Basketball was a great success, led by George Mumby, a stellar player. The team lost only one game out of sixteen and beat Exeter in a thriller, 27-26. The wrestling team was able to obtain an 11-11 tie with Worcester. The hockey team chalked up a 3-1 victory against the Red and Gray, after being pushed around all season. On this team C. R. Hunt represented 1927. Another term was at its close, and we felt glad that Spring was at hand.

After vacation we returned to face the pleasantest term of all. At once we became absorbed with baseball and track, both of which came through with creditable records and crushed Exeter 9-0 and 71-55 respectively. The tennis team, after a fair season, just lost to Exeter, 5-6.

The publications were all successfully run, and the Musical Clubs performed notably at Rogers Hall, Bradford, and in the Andover Exeter concert. The Dramatic Club put on a good show, while Philo and the prize speaking contests were unusually successful.

A year of thrills and disappointments had been placed behind us, and we now realized that we were no longer "preps", but that we could be called Andover Men, and would on the face of it enjoy our much longed for vacation the more.

WALTER M. SWOPE

Lower Middle Year

NOW virtually "old men", we took tyrannical delight in harassing and in every way making uncomfortable the insignificant "preps". They carried our trunks, provided "feeds" for us, and amused us with their various talents. But this amusement practically ended with the "Prep Parade", and all eyes were turned to football.

The preliminary season was fairly successful. We defeated the Yale Freshmen and several other powerful teams, but Exeter triumphed in the final game, beating us by a score of 10 to 0. The Blue, however, presented a wonderful defense on several occasions. The soccer team came through the season undefeated, winning the letter game from Worcester, 4-0.

We returned for the winter term in the usual state of depression prevalent after Christmas vacation, but our melancholy was soon forgotten in the whirlwind of athletic and other activities. Exeter lost the relay race to us by a narrow margin, but won the next contest, the swimming meet, with the close score of 33-29. Swoope upheld our class on this team. Exeter again triumphed by defeating us in basketball, much to our surprise. The hockey game with our New Hampshire rivals had to be called off on account of warm weather. Winter sports came to a close with victory over Worcester in wrestling, and we desperately applied ourselves to our studies during the remainder of the term.

Track and baseball commanded our interest and efforts in the spring. After winning nearly every preliminary meet, the track team wound up the season by vanquishing the Red and Grey in an intensely exciting contest, in which "Charlie" Borah won four first places for Andover. Captain-elect Vaill was the only '27 man on the team. The baseball team bowed to Exeter for the first time in four years. The tennis team, led by Captain Luce, met with only one defeat, trimming Exeter in the final contest, 7-2. Captain Luce and Sturtevant upheld our class in this sport.

The Junior Prom, Commencement Exercises, and College Boards all followed in quick succession, and we departed from Andover Hill in high spirits, for were we not now upper-classmen?

Upper Middle Year

HAVING passed two of the milestones that mark our school career, we zealously started on our third, impelled by the ever increasing realization that we were drawing nearer and nearer to the distinguished title of Seniors. After impressing our importance upon the bewildered "preps" at the Prep Parade, we focussed our attention on football.

Coach Shepard rounded into shape on the new field a rather promising team, well captained by Sandberg. Although having a good start, the preliminary season was, as a whole, disappointing, and was completed by a scoreless tie with our ancient rival, Exeter. Our class was represented by Avery, Davis, Weicker, Luce, Douglas, and G. P. Richardson. The soccer team, led by Captain S. Smith had a successful season which ended with a scoreless tie with Worcester; 1927 was represented by C. L. Sturtevant, Grainger, and B. C. Smith.

Soon we found ourselves engrossed in winter. The hockey team under Captain Rideout, in spite of rather disappointing preliminary games defeated Exeter 2-1. Our class was well represented by Walker, Luce, Richardson, Kimball, Lamont, Frost, McDougall, and Henderson. In basketball, Mr. Blackmer produced out of apparently rather poor material a team decidedly better than we expected. However, we were disappointed in not being able to meet our rivals, due to an epidemic at Exeter.

Under the coaching of Mr. Dake, Captain Nyce led the swimming team through a fairly successful season, but this team was also prevented from clashing with Exeter. Swoope, Paine, Douglas, R. C. Smith, and B. C. Smith formed 1927's representation. The wrestling team completed a good season under Captain Capra. Our class contributed Capra, Yamaguchi, Sundown, and Parnall. On February 16th the relay team defeated Exeter in a thrilling race at the Boston Arena.

After enjoying other functions of the winter term such as the Senior Prom, the Dramatic Club, and the Musical Clubs, we soon realized the approach of Spring. The track team, after a victorious preliminary season, defeated Exeter 85-41. 1927 was represented by Captain Vaill, Avery, Douglas, R. S. Kimball, Watt, Davis, and Weicker. The baseball team, coached by Mr. Merewether, having had a fair season, lost a very exciting game to Exeter by a score of 7-6. B. H. Bassett, Luce, and Alexander represented 1927. Captain Luce led his tennis team through a victorious season which ended with the defeat of Exeter 6-3; 1927 was represented by Luce, Robertson, Sturtevant, and Thomas.

The school publications also had their share in 1926 activities.

When June had come it was almost with regret that we closed our Upper Middle year, for it was the happiest of our Andover life.

F. B. COOPER, JR.

Senior Year

AS Seniors we now stuck out our chests and strode forth on our fourth and final lap in the four years' grind to college. The football prospects were quite bright, and with comparatively few casualties we came through a successful preliminary season which ended in a 20-3 victory over Exeter. In this hard-fought and splendidly played game the class was represented by Swoope (Manager), Frigard, Flynn, Gary, Luce, Weicker, Wheeler, Wolf, Davis, R. Kimball, Lyon, Roe, G. Richardson, and Stewart. The soccer team ended its unbroken string of victories for three years with a victory over Worcester. The lettermen of the class were Sturtevant (Captain), Rakestraw (Manager), B. C. Smith, Laundon, Loeb, Grainger, MacDuffie, G. Allen, Coonley, Hardy, J. Kimball, H. Jones. The cross-country team, with but a small supply of material to draw from, did better than was expected of them.

Upon our return from the Christmas holidays we were greeted by a typical Andover winter with more than our share of snow. Many and varied diversions helped us to eventually end a seemingly endless stretch of time. The hockey team, upon which Luce (Captain), S. Walker, Lamont, J. Kimball, Rugg, Laughlin, Frost, and Barrows (Manager) of the class served, were hindered by adverse weather conditions for the majority of the season and lost to Exeter, 2-1. Our relay team also tasted defeat at the B. A. A.'s; Watt and Nunn were the Seniors on the team. Frigard, Hawley, Hoffman, Lyon, Loeb, G. G. Smith, and Houston (Manager) were members of 1927 on the winning basketball team, but on the same day we lost swimming to our formidable rivals. Swoope (Captain), H. Jones (Manager), B. C. Smith, MacDuffie, E. B. Paine, R. C. Smith, and Houston of 1927 participated. The wrestling team had a fine season, ending with a victory over the Brown freshmen. Yamaguchi (Captain), F. B. Cooper (Manager), E. L. Bacon, Frazier, Capra, W. A. Robinson, and G. P. Richardson were Senior matmen. The publications and other extra-curriculum activities upheld the standards of previous years.

With almost all of the spring term ahead of us, we can but hope that victory will attend our efforts under the leadership of Luce (Captain) and Bennett (Manager) on the diamond, Weicker (Captain) and Merrill (Manager) on the track, and Sturtevant (Captain) and Lamont (Manager) on the courts against our Exeter competition. A struggle of several years' duration has finally been ended by the faculty's recent inauguration of golf as a minor sport. As the time draws nearer when we will be alumni rather than under-graduates of Andover, we feel with sincere regret that four such years of friendship and devotion can never be duplicated.

MUSICAL CLUBS OFFICERS

Musical Clubs

THE Musical Clubs this year have been unusually successful. Early in the fall Dr. Pfattercher and Mr. Handley called out candidates and started organizing the clubs. Many turned out, and the membership became one of the largest in the history of the organization.

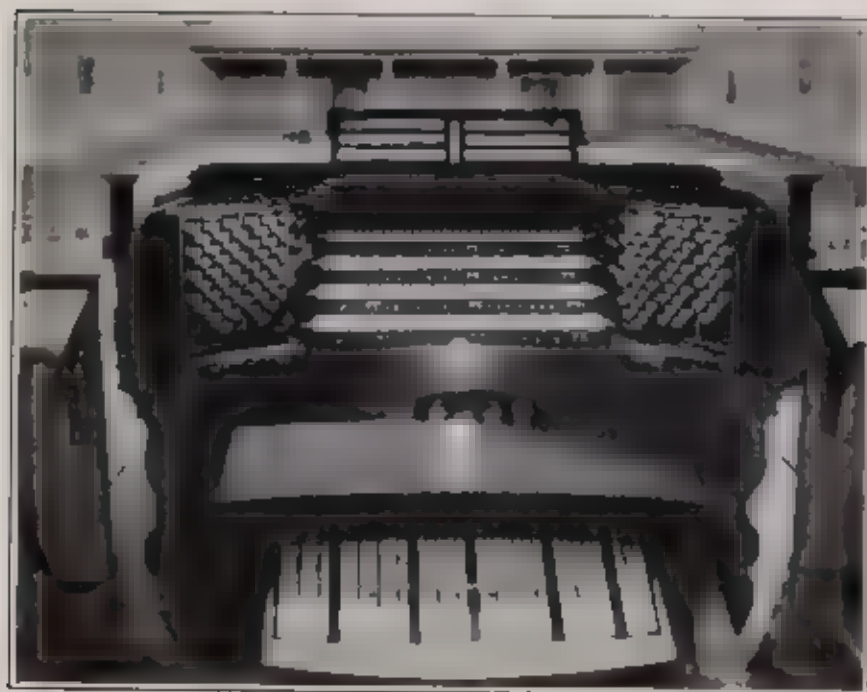

The first concert was at Rogers Hall. Over a hundred made the trip, and the dance which followed the musical program was enjoyed greatly.

Interest in Music was given a fresh impetus during the winter by the installation of the new Martha Cochran Memorial Organ and the Ampico in George Washington Hall. Several worthwhile concerts, the English Singers, an organ recital by Louis Vierne of Notre Dame, and the Chopin Piano Recital by M. Dumesnil, were presented.

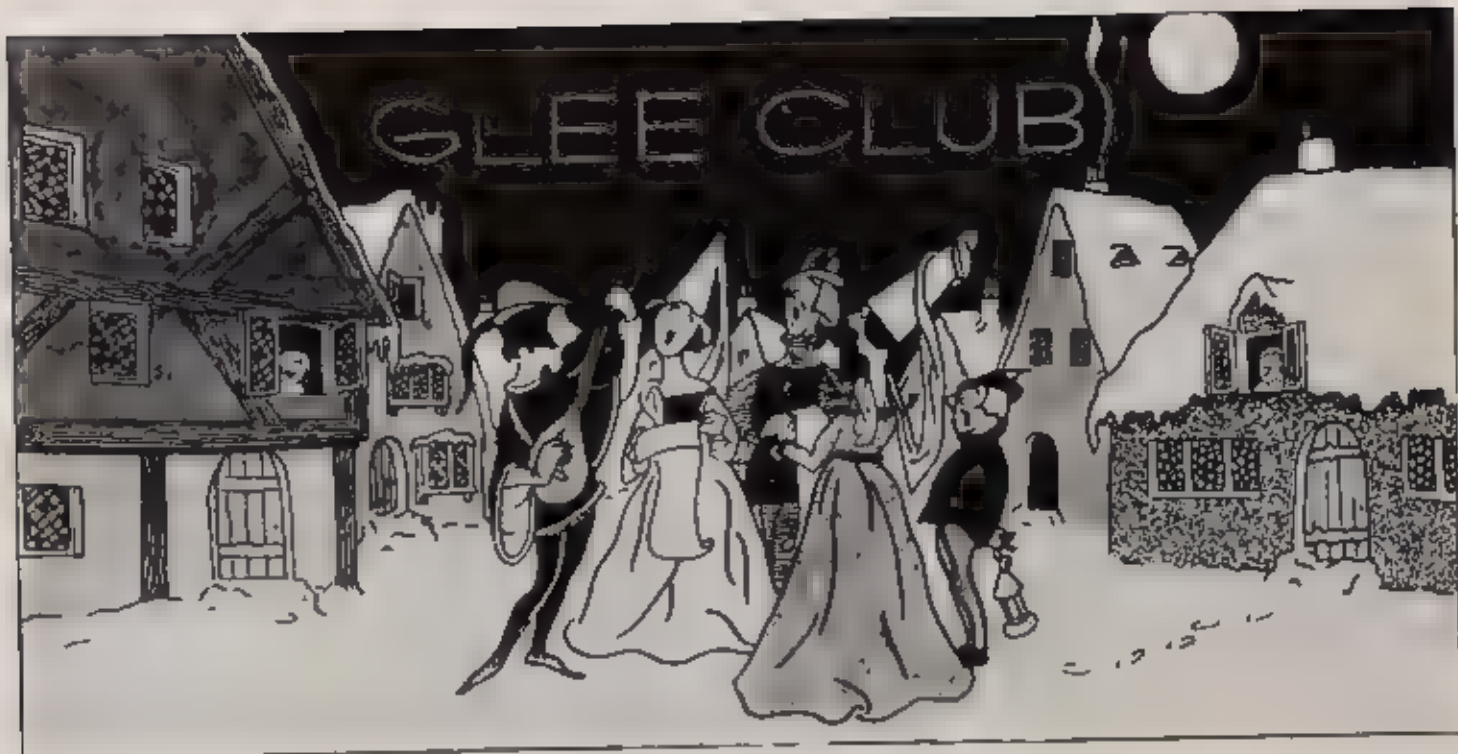

At the beginning of the Spring term the Exeter musical clubs came down, and, after a pleasant afternoon's visit, gave a combined concert with our own clubs. An unusually large audience was present, and the concert was of unexpected excellence. In May the glee club gave a sacred and a secular cantata of Bach in the combined concert with Bradford.

THE installation of the new organ prevented the use of the stage of George Washington Hall for the Dramatic Club's usual winter performance.

Early in the winter, however, Mr. Heely organized the club, and, with a large number of candidates to chose from, tried out several plays. It was difficult to decide which play was most suited to the acting ability of the material, but he finally determined on presenting "Mr. Pim Passes By", by A. A. Milne

This is a light comedy of English country life in which humor and pathos are mixed. It deals with the confusion and trials brought upon a household by the absent-mindedness and senility of an old man. It is well suited to this type of presentation, and will, without doubt, be very successful

The following cast has been announced

GEORGE MARDEN	F. M. Pope
OLIVIA MARDEN, his wife	L. W. Wallner
DINAH, his niece	F. V. Hooglund
LADY MARDEN, his aunt	F. B. Cooper
BRIAN STRANGE	T. H. Raywood
MR. PIM	J. P. Fox
ANNE, a maid	D. H. Morris

The play is scheduled to be presented during May, on the stage of George Washington Hall. It is the first performance of the Dramatic Club in their own quarters, and should inaugurate a new era in the history of the club. Now that the conveniences, both in proximity and equipment, of the new auditorium replace the crowded quarters of the Town Hall, it will be much easier to stage plays, and that should lead to more interest and more performances.

At Commencement another play will be given. Although no definite selection has been made, the Club hopes to keep up the high standard of its previous performances.

WITH the close of its hundred and second year as Andover's recognized debating organization, the Philomathean Society left well performed a program that for interest and action has not been so successful for a long time. Great praise is due B. C. Smith and W. M. Swoope, the officers, who were directly responsible for the student interest in the organization, and whose efforts went far towards making this a successful year for Philo.

At the beginning of the winter term the fellows that expressed their desire to debate were divided into two clubs, Smith heading one and Swoope the other. This new plan was designed to arouse more enlivened competition, and thus to add to the caliber of the debates, the idea proved very successful. Previously faculty members have been excluded from the meetings, but as this matter is under the option of the fellows, the members expressed their desire this year of having an adviser, and Mr. Moore, an experienced debater himself, kindly consented to serve in this capacity.

During the winter term several debates were held covering a great variety of topics including: the Nicaragua question, the advisability of an Andover Golf team, capital punishment, and state legislation. After each debate Mr. Moore gave a short but instructive talk, criticizing the speakers and outlining his program for the next week. For the second year the English system of judging was successfully used. An elaborate program has been planned for next year.

THE Society of Inquiry, the student religious organization, has been, since its founding in 1833, a chief factor in campus life and a great service to the student body. With the war, however, and the resulting reactions, the Society lost much of its former vitality, much of its former prestige.

The Society is still in the process of an attempt at re-incarnation that was begun in 1925, the year in which it enjoyed its greatest success. During the current year it has confined itself to the Peabody House, where Sunday night lectures and meetings have been held. It was greatly assisted throughout the winter term by Mr. Spencer.

THE Open Door Committee takes upon its shoulders one of the most important and necessary of all tasks connected with the regular athletic routine. As a committee of hospitality, it arranges for the meeting, transportation, and entertainment of all visiting teams. It consists of five seniors; in the spring term, two upper middlers are appointed, who compose the nucleus for the committee of the following year.

This work, especially during the winter term, is particularly exacting, and the men who served deserve especial credit. Mr. Roth, who has been the faculty adviser since 1923, has given this a great deal of attention and aid.

PHILLIPIAN BOARD

The Phillipian

THE Phillipian now has been the Academy newspaper for nearly a half a century. The standards, and accordingly the general competence of the paper, have varied annually in ratio with the interest and support of the student body.

The 1926-27 Board, handicapped at the start by an unusually small number of associate editors, developed rapidly to attain a firm standard as a bi-weekly publication. W. M. Swoope was Editor-in-chief, while H. L. Luria capably handled the business end. W. F. Merrill and R. C. Smith, the Managing Editors, attended to the detailed supervision of the issues.

POT POURRI BOARD

Pot Pourri

THE POT POURRI, the senior class book, first published in 1892, aims to present an accurate record of all the Academy activities, — teams, clubs, publications, and other organizations, — and particularly to feature the statistics and records of the senior class.

The volume was edited this year by M. W. MacDuffie, Jr., with A. M. Hirsh, Jr. as Business Manager, and A. P. Thompson, III as Art Editor.

The board has especially aimed for accuracy in the statistics, for completeness in the records, and for maintenance of the traditions and standards of previous years. It is hoped that the addition of a few minor changes will be an improvement to the publication.

VAGABOND BOARD

Vagabond

A literary publication in a secondary school always has its problems to face and its difficulties to overcome, but when, last fall, the Vagabond sent out its first call for heelers, it met with unusually discouraging results. Only two members of the editorial board of the previous year returned, and only three heelers of merit responded to the frantic appeals, but, throughout the year, these five continued the publication through their own unaided efforts.

In spite of the lack of support, the customary high standard of material was preserved. Originally founded as an exclusively literary publication and bound by the constitution not to contain any humorous columns or to exhibit any of the earmarks of a "humorous" publication, it was naturally very difficult to satisfy the tastes of the majority of the student body, but the Vagabond stuck to its guns and continued exclusively artistic.

In spite of the adverse criticisms of the school, it seems as if there must be some place in a school of this size for a publication of this kind, and since it has only been in existence for three years, and consequently has not acquired the background of tradition and respectability so necessary for its existence, it is sincerely hoped by the members of the board that each succeeding year will see it grow in influence and power, and that it eventually will be able to stand on its own feet and be as much a matter of pride to Andover's alumni as are her other institutions.

BLUE BOOK BOARD

Blue Book

THE Blue Book is the student handbook of various facts and reference material presented to the entire school at the opening of the year.

The Blue Book, since its inception in 1921, has, with the exception of the school map added in 1925, undergone through the years but little change. It was not until the 1926-27 edition that a constructive revision was undertaken by the current Editor in chief, B. D. Gilbert '26.

Many pages of obviously unnecessary and platitudinous material were eliminated. The result was a vastly improved Blue Book. Editor-in chief (1926-27), B. D. Gilbert '26; Business Manager, C. R. Langmuir '26.

For 1927-28, E. L. Bacon, Jr. '27 was elected Editor-in-chief, and G. C. Gordon, Jr. '29, Business Manager.

ATHLETICS

Football

Around a nucleus of ten letter men Coach Shepard, ably assisted by Coaches Dake, Benton, Merewether, and Jacob, built up a very successful team, defeating Exeter for the first time in seven years.

The season opened against the strong Dartmouth Freshmen. Journeying to Hanover the Blue was defeated 16 to 0. This was not, however, a sign of weakness because they were by far the strongest opponents that the team faced.

A week later Andover inflicted the only defeat that the Harvard Freshmen suffered by a score of 6 to 0. The victory against such opponents showed the strength of Andover's team.

An unlucky safety gave the next game to the Yale Fresh team. Although Andover was several times in scoring position, it finally lost, 2 to 0.

On October 23 at the dedication of the new Lawrence High School Stadium the Blue avenged the previous year's defeat in a clean-cut 14 to 0 victory, which nevertheless did not show Andover's true superiority.

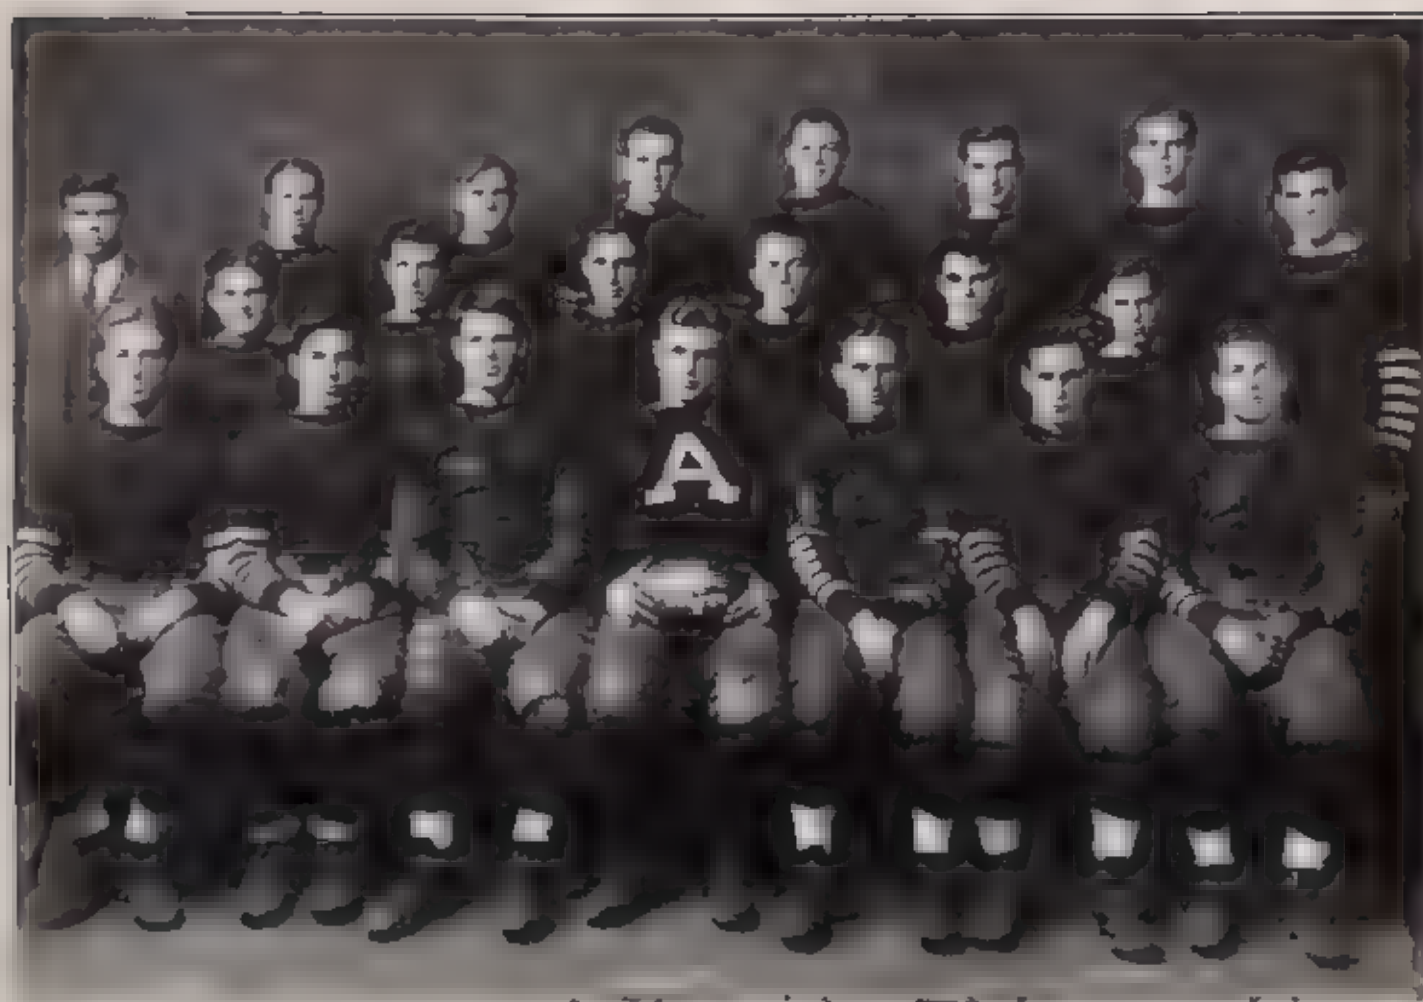

The following week Dean Academy, one of the strongest prep-school teams in the East, inflicted a severe beating, gathering 13 points while they held Andover scoreless.

In the last preliminary contest the whole second and third teams got a chance to help swamp the Tufts Freshmen, 28 to 0.

The annual Andover Exeter struggle was held on November 13 at Andover. During the first half the Blue was not up to its standard of play, and the three points scored by Exeter on a drop kick seemed an insurmountable advantage. In the second half, however, Andover came back with a firm determination to win, and soon piled up three touchdowns. The final score was 20 to 3, the first victory for Andover in seven years.

The following received their letters: Captain Kingston, Manager Swoope, Captain-elect Gould, Davis, Frigard, Luce, Richardson, Stewart, Crandall, Weicker, Wheeler, Avery, Roe, Flynn, Lyon, Whiting, Gary, Barres, Wolf, Osborne, and Kimball.

With but four letter men, Captain Layton, Swift, Riley, and Aldrich, back to start with, Coach Merewether, a former Brown University star and member of the Pittsburg Pirates, who was coaching at Andover for the first time, turned out a moderately successful team. Around this nucleus he built up a fast, hard-fighting team which only lost the Exeter game by a one-run margin.

Andover started the season by defeating four strong teams. Wentworth was beaten by a score of 9-8, and Layton, allowing only four scattered hits, shut out Lawrence 4-0. Next the team won from Dartmouth Fresh, 8-5, and from Huntington, 3-0.

The following game was lost to the Harvard Seconds, however, by a score of 10-8. This game might have been won, but loose fielding let in several runs. Dean also downed Andover in a hard-fought contest, 3-0.

On May 15, the Blue added one more to its list of victories by defeating the Boston University Freshmen 6-5. Then the losing streak of the next few games began. St. John's Prep won 7-2; Harvard Yearlings 11-2; Holy Cross Fresh 5-2, although Layton allowed only three hits; and Worcester Academy 3-1.

May 21, the Yale Freshmen came from New Haven with great confidence, but returned tied 5-5. Layton pitched superbly, but Yale's few hits were well bunched. Andover split even in the last two preliminary games, defeating Cushing 2-0, and being beaten by St. Anselm's 7-6.

On Saturday, June 12, Exeter came to Andover with a splendid season's record and confident hopes of a victory. The Exonians were invincible the first three innings, leading 3-0. However, Andover rallied in the third, fourth, and fifth, securing six runs, apparently a safe lead. In the eighth Exeter scored one run. With two out in the ninth and the game seemingly won, Andover made a succession of errors, filling the bases. Coombs of Exeter then knocked a long triple, winning the game for the Red and Gray.

With seven letter men returning and excellent new material in school, Coaches Shepard and Shields developed a very well balanced team, which won the Harvard Interscholastics for the sixth consecutive year and overwhelmed Exeter, 85-41.

In the winter the relay team started off well, defeating Exeter for the fourth straight year. The Harvard Freshmen were beaten, 45-36, but Dartmouth '29 won, 54-42. The next week Andover won from the Brown Freshmen, 44-19. The relay team defeated Harvard '29.

The spring season was ushered in by the defeat of Harvard '29, 72-54. In this meet Avery and Sullivan both raised the school record in the high-jump to six feet. Although defeated by Yale '29, 81-45, Andover broke two school records, Kingston in the shot-put, and Avery in the pole vault. On May 15, the team scored 69½ points in the Harvard Interscholastics. Culver was second and Exeter a poor third. Weicker threw the discus 145 feet and 3 inches for a new Harvard Interscholastic record. The next meet Andover defeated Dartmouth '29 by a score of 69 1-3 to 56 2-3.

The following week Andover ran up a record score on its old rival. Exeter won first place in all the running events, but the Blue's victory in the field events raised the score to 85 points. Avery and Sullivan made a new dual meet record of 5 feet 11 3-4 inches in the high-jump, while in the discus Weicker also established a new dual meet record of 131 feet 5 inches.

The following were awarded their letter: Captain Vaill, Captain-elect Weicker, Avery, Davis, Douglas, Ford, Francis, Hall, Holmes, Kieselhorst, Kimball, Kingston, D. Latham, E. Latham, Manning, McKinley, Pomeroy, Reiner, Smith, Sullivan, Thompson, Thurber, Walker, Watt, and Manager Dudley.

Hockey

The hockey team was most unfortunate in that four of the nine games were cancelled on account of poor ice. The five games that were played, however, afforded the strongest competition encountered by an Andover sextet in many years. From the following returning letter men. Captain Luce, Walker, Frost, Kimball, Lamont, Henderson, McDougall and Rosenfeld, Coach Merewether had plenty of material with which to organize a strong team. The team was greatly handicapped by poor ice even in practice.

On January 12, the Blue defeated the Andover Town Team 4-1. The whole team played a fast, aggressive game. Walker scored two goals for the Blue. The next two games, namely Newton High on January 15, and St. John's on January 22, were cancelled on account of poor weather conditions. Then, on January 26, Andover played Melrose High in the most exciting game of the season. Andover scored early in the second period, but after a few seconds in the third period Melrose evened the count. An extra period could not be played because the visitors had to make train connections, so the game ended in a tie, 1-1.

Again on January 29, the game with Middlesex had to be cancelled on account of poor ice. On February 2, the Andover sextet went to Boston to play the Harvard Freshmen in the Boston Arena. The Blue team, in their first game indoors, where the rink was larger than the average, were unable to defeat the Harvard yearlings. With five minutes to play, Harvard led 2-0, but after such a gruelling fight the Andover team weakened and the Harvard Freshmen won by the score of 7-0. On February 5, Andover avenged her recent defeat by beating the powerful Dean Academy Team 5-2. Captain Luce, scoring four of Andover's goals, was helped greatly by the aggressiveness of Frost.

On February 12, the Andover team went to Exeter to face her old rival in the final game of the season. The ice was very poor, but authorities of both schools had agreed to play the game no matter how bad it was. The game was hard fought but rather slow. Exeter scored her second goal early in the third period, making the score 2-0. Then, with only three minutes to play, Luce tallied for Andover. The next few minutes witnessed the determined struggle of the Blue to tie the score, but the Exeter team held, and the victory went to them by the score of 2-1.

The letter men were, Captain Luce, Manager Barrows, Walker, Frost, Kimball, McDougall, Rosenfeld, Laughlin, Pierce, Rugg and Lamont.

The hopes for a successful season were high in the fall with several letter men back, among them Captain Swoope, Jeffery, Westfall, B. C. Smith, R. C. Smith, Anderson, Paine, and Douglas, as well as many members of last year's squad. These hopes were given a severe blow, however, when no new material was uncovered and some of the old men became ineligible on account of studies. In spite of these difficulties, Coach Dake put out a team which, though it lost four out of seven meets, was beaten out only by a small margin each time. Every man on it was developed here at Andover; this group contained one record holder, Anderson, who lowered the former school record for the 100-yard backstroke from 1:14 3-5 seconds to 1:09 3-5, a remarkable performance, while Westfall, a three-event man and high scorer of the season, was undefeated in the 100-yard dash.

The first meet of the year took place at Andover against the Boston Boys' Club and resulted in a 31-31 score, but the visitors were awarded a win since they had taken the relay race. The following week the team lost to Huntington at the Boston Y. M. C. A. where the absence, through sickness, of Jeffery and R. C. Smith was keenly felt. The final result was 35-27. In the next encounter, Brookline High was beaten 44-18. On February 12, the team traveled down to New Haven to swim the Yale Freshmen, who had one of the strongest teams in its class in the country. Andover was beaten after some close competition. During the two weeks which followed, the men were put through much hard work that ended with a decisive victory over Worcester, 36-26. The next meet was also a win for the Blue when they overcame the Dartmouth Freshmen, 42-20.

On March 12, Exeter came to Andover with an enviable record, having lost but one meet, and this to the powerful Yale Freshmen swimmers. They upheld this record by winning, 37-25, but most of the races were a matter only of inches. Westfall again starred by winning both the 50 and 100-yard dashes, while Anderson performed well in the backstroke. The Exeter team did 1:44 seconds in winning the 200-yard relay, and Harte did the excellent time of 2:19 3-5 seconds in the 200-yard swim.

The following men won their letters by taking part in this meet: Captain Swoope, Westfall, Jeffery, MacDuffie, Anderson, Paine, B. C. Smith, Brainard, Jackson, R. C. Smith, Houston, and Manager Jones. F. F. Carpenter, who did not swim in the Exeter meet because of illness, was also awarded his letter. L. D. Westfall has been elected Captain and B. B. Kane Manager of next year's team.

Soccer

With only three letter men, namely Captain Sturtevant, B. C. Smith, and Grainger, it was not expected that Coach Ryley would be able to turn out such a successful team. The remainder of the team was drawn from members of last year's squad and from the new men in school. Due to his thorough understanding of the game and his uncanny ability in coaching, Coach Ryley developed a comparatively light, but very fast team. A short but representative schedule called for the team's best in every game.

The first game of the season with St. John's, scheduled for October 6, was called off at the last moment on account of a misunderstanding between the two schools. Then, on October 16, the Blue met the Harvard Freshmen at Andover. The home team's passwork was superb and due to this fact the Blue won by a 2-0 score. This was the only defeat administered to the Yearlings during the season. On October 20, Andover met the strong Dean Academy team on the home field. Although the Andover team was greatly outweighed, the Blue turned in a very creditable 4-2 victory.

On October 30, the Andover team motored to Tabor Academy to play the last preliminary game of the season. Both teams were evenly matched and it was expected to be the closest game of the season. The game was fast and clean. It was evident from the start that Andover would win by its superior teamwork. Pugh and Sturtevant scored three goals apiece, making the final score 6-0 in Andover's favor.

After a week more of conscientious practice, Andover was ready to face Worcester Academy in the final game of the season on November 6. At the start both teams took the offensive and there followed one of the fastest games ever witnessed on the home field. Grainger scored first for Andover with a beautiful shot from left wing. Worcester tallied soon after. Sturtevant scored twice for the Blue, in a short while, on perfect passes from Greenough and Loeb. The game ended in a victory for Andover by the score of 3-2. The defensive play of Laundon, B. C. Smith, and MacDuffie was a very important factor in keeping the ball away from the Blue goal.

This completed the season with no defeats, and incidentally completed the third successive year that an Andover soccer team has gone undefeated. The men who received their letters were: Captain Sturtevant, Manager Rakestraw, B. C. Smith, Grainger, T. O. Greenough, R. B. Greenough, MacDuffie, H. T. Jones, Loeb, Hardy, Pugh, Allen, Hoffman, Kimball, Laundon, and Coonley. T. O. Greenough was elected Captain for next season.

Wrestling

With the close of the 1927 wrestling season, the curtain was rung down on a brilliant three year period of strong and consistent teams. It also marked the close of the careers of Capra and Yamaguchi, who both have wrestled on the team for four years.

At the start of the season three letter men, Capra, Yamaguchi, and Parnall, were back from the previous year, and to these were added two new men, and several good wrestlers were developed from the 1926 squad. In the first meet, the Tufts Freshmen were administered a crushing defeat, with a score of 24-0, Andover winning every bout of the meet.

The Harvard Freshmen, next week, however, offered more opposition. Andover was behind when Parnall, by throwing his opponent in the last few seconds of the last bout secured the winning points, and the Academy won, 13-11.

On January 29, the team lost to the Boston Y. M. C. A., 8-16. Capra, careless at the start, was defeated for the second and last time in four years. This meet was particularly exciting, two bouts going into overtime periods. The Boston men, who were older than the Phillips wrestlers, were all experienced and skillful wrestlers.

The Academy team, however, recovered next week to crush the Springfield Freshmen, 20-8. Robinson, in this meet, took the place of Parnall, who had become ineligible.

At New Haven, February 26, Andover tied the Yale Freshmen, 13-13. Frazier distinguished himself in the 145-lb. class by throwing Marshall of the 1926 Andover team.

A triumph of 14-6 over the Brown Freshmen closed the season. Richardson, in his first meet of the season, defeated his opponent decisively.

Coach Carlson, who has been Academy wrestling coach for 23 years, since the very beginning of the sport here, guided another team throughout a successful season, and Captain Yamaguchi finished the year undefeated.

The men winning letters were Captain Yamaguchi, Capra, Frazier, McGauley, Florsheim, Bacon, Robinson, and Richardson.

Basketball

Mr. Blackmer, starting his second year as coach at Andover, had only one letter man back, Captain Avery, the outstanding player of the 1926 team. The squad of fifty men which reported at the first call for candidates was gradually reduced to about twenty, several of them members of last year's squad. The new material was excellent, too, and under able coaching a good, fast, aggressive team was developed. This group consisted of Captain Avery, Frigard, Loeb, Lyon, and Field. At the mid-winter rating their number was materially strengthened when Harris and Hawley became eligible.

The victims of the first three games were the Mass. Normal Art School, 29-21; Tufts Freshmen, 20-12; and the Clarke School, 42-21. Dean, with an exceedingly powerful aggregation, handed the Blue its first defeat, 42-20. This was followed by one the next week from the strong St. John's team, 22-19, though the outcome was undecided until the final minute of play. After leading the Harvard Freshmen for the first half, Andover finally succumbed by the score of 41-32. They quickly atoned for these losses by beating Lowell High, 34-28, Lawrence High 29-26, and the Huntington School, 50-11. The following week a trip was made to New Haven where an exceptionally speedy game was played with first one team ahead and then the other. Although 45 points were scored by our team, the Freshmen triumphed, 52-45. It is interesting to note that at one time in this contest Andover was four points behind but jumped into the lead by scoring seven points in less than a minute. However, on March 5, Worcester was swamped 52-30, making up for the defeat suffered on their court last year. Still, the best was yet to come, for on March 12, the team traveled up to Exeter to meet a combination which, by comparative scores, was much their superior. The confidence of that combination was soon shattered, and at half time the count stood: Andover 9, Exeter 8. Soon after the second period opened, the Blue changed its mode of attack entirely, sweeping all before it. The final score was 31-19, a record victory in Andover Exeter basketball history.

The stars of the team were Captain Avery and Frigard, though much credit is due to Mr. Blackmer and also to the hearty spirit of cooperation on the part of every player on the team. Those who earned their letters were: Captain Avery, Frigard, Harris, Lyon, Loeb, Field, Frank, Hawley, Smith, Hoffman, and Manager Houston. H. L. Harris is Captain of next year's team, while W. Smyth is the Manager.

Tennis

Only three letter men, namely Captain Luce, Goodwin and Sturtevant, returned for the season of 1926. However, the club teams in the fall of 1925 brought to the foreground many promising players, among whom were Hoyt, Robertson, Field, Jennings, and Fine. Thomas, who entered school later, proved to be an important factor in the team's success. Captain Luce, being on the baseball team, was unable to play in several of the tennis matches. Coach Kelley developed his material into a very good team which won seven out of ten matches.

Andover won the first meet of the season with Malden High by the score of 6-1. The match with St. Paul's School had to be cancelled on account of poor weather. The Harvard Freshmen proved a little too strong for the Blue in winning a hard fought contest 5-4. On May 8, the Blue team journeyed to Providence, where they defeated the Brown Freshmen 5-2. The Harvard Seconds defeated Andover twice by large scores, which did not indicate the closeness of each match. The next four matches resulted in victories for Andover: M. I. T. Freshmen were defeated 5-2, Merrimack Valley Country Club 8-1, Newton High 5-2, and the strong Dartmouth Freshmen team 5-4.

On May 31, the Harvard Interscholastics were held in Cambridge. Captain Luce was unable to play and Dunham and Sturtevant were defaulted, due to a misunderstanding as to the time of play. Thomas played exceptionally well for Andover, but he was defeated in the fifth round by Seligson, of New York, who finally won the tournament.

On June 9, the Blue team went to Exeter for the final match of the year. Andover took the first four singles and two of the doubles matches, thus gaining the second consecutive victory over her ancient rival by the score of 6-3.

Those who received their letters were: Captain Luce, Manager Durston, Thomas, Sturtevant, Goodwin, Field, Robertson and Jennings. Sturtevant was elected captain for next year and Lamont the Manager.

A FOOTBALL GAME BETWEEN THE FACULTY TEAM AND SOME STUDENTS WHO FROM TIME TO TIME HAVE COME INTO THE PUBLIC EYE

On the kickoff Loeb was taken out by several faculty members and had to leave the game. Student's ball. Sides nailed Bell at right angles. Gary took out Bancroft, while Sturtevant went around end (of Bartlet Hall). On the next play Tully was removed for unfair tactics; Parnall taken out for cutting. Bancroft failed to nab Luce. There was "no-excuse" for the students' fumble and the faculty got the ball. Casement threw Forbes for a loss with a fast crack. Boyce made his famous Providence run for six yards. "Al" Stearns' signals rang out across the field in a loud, clear voice, "Base, Sordid, Unclean, Low, Mean, Unrighteous, —"; but the students seemed to know the signals and someone got Forbush by the beard. Casualties resulted: Students received a great number of cuts on the famous Bancroft-Whitney line play. The spirit in Paradise was fine. At the end of the first half, the faculty, with smashing exam plays, scored heavily on the students.

At the beginning of the second half Gary had sinus trouble and had to leave for New York. Davis's passion plays made a great appeal to the females in the audience. The students ran wild through the week-end as Hawley passed out. Crandall was yanked for playing too hard. Kelley threw Bennett (out of class). The game was called when Boyce, Forbes, and Stone ran out of gas.

Warren P. (Parentheses) Zoo-Zoo.

"Precious"

"No One But You Knows How to Love" that's why "I'm on My Way Home." "I Know That You Know" "It Made You Happy When You Made Me Cry" so I started "Breezin' Along" "Havin' Lots of Fun" "Steppin' Around" with "Somebody Else." "When I First Met Mary" I said "I've Got the Girl" — "She Knows Her Onions" and "She Belongs to Me." Now "Someday" "I'd Like to Meet That Old Sweetheart of Mine." She must be "Wistful and Blue" "Trying to Forget" "The Two of Us" and "How Many Times" I let her "Kiss Me" "Tenderly" under a "New Moon" "In a Little Garden" and "Every Little While" I thought "She's Still My Baby" probably "Calling Me Home" but "It's Too Late to Be Sorry Now"

"Oh, Kay!" "Don't be Angry With Me." I'm really "Lonesome and Sorry." She's not "Sweeter Than You" with your "Baby Face," "Lonely Eyes" and "Pretty Lips." "I Never Knew What the Moonlight Could Do" until I saw "Moonlight on the Ganges." It started me "Thinking of You" and I said "I Wish I Had My Old Gal Back Again" because "I Lost My Heart in Monterey" to "One Alone." "Have You Forgotten" those "Blue Skies" and "The Little White House" "High High High Up in the Hills" and also when I was "In Araby with You." Oh "If I'd Only Believed in You" but "What Does It Matter" now. "Let's Forgive and Forget" "Since I Found You" once more "I'd Love to Call You My Sweetheart" again "I Don't Want Nobody But You" "Because I Love You." "Sweet Thing" though "I Can't Believe That You're in Love With Me." Anyway "Wouldn't You" try? "No Foolin'" "You Will — Won't You." Really "Here or There" I was "Never Without You." "It's a Wonderful World After All" and "Maybe" my "Lucky Day" is here. I'm "Idolizing" you and want you "For My Sweetheart" but "It All Depends on You" so "Scatter Your Smiles" and "Leave Me Something to Remember" besides this "Nightmare"

"Hugs and Kisses"

YOUR "CAROLINA SWEETHEART"

You can sing of Themistocles, Homer, and Darius,
Socrates, Myron, and Plato,
Or eulogize Cicero, Caesar, and Marius,
Octavius, Pompey, and Cato.

But these ancient teachers are dust in the grave,
We must learn from the Faculty now,
But if all their petals of wisdom you save,
You'll sure learn to live, — and how!

MY DEAR EDITOR:—

You MUst forGIVE me for being so ABsoLI tely RUde as to WRite to you when I ACtually haven't ever MET you. I mean, I'm not UUsually so exCRU-tuatingly BOLD, but I feel so huMiliatingly opPRESSED that I just IIAVE to do SOMETHing about it. Really I have NEVER felt so GHIAStly in ALL my life. My NERves are posiTIVELY exHAUSTed, and as for SLEEP, my DEAR, I haven't even CLOSeD my eyes outside of CLASS for SIMply Ages. I am EVer so emBAR-rassed to BOther you as I know you are just BUried with Work, but I mean, I JUST can't HELP it. But, well, I met the CUtest boy downtown YESTerday — he's SIMply aDORable, and SO gallant. I was STAGgering out of the bookstore just LAden with packages and I know I NEVER would have reached ABbot if HE hadn't OFFered to HELP me. Can you FEature ANYthing so rIDIC ulously FOR-tunate. HONestly I could have KISSED him — I mean, I REALLY was TOO overJOYed for exPReSSion, but of course I really didn't KNOW him and SUCH things SIMply aren't Done. But I was just a WREck — you can't IMAGine how TERribly dePReSSing those HORrd things were — they weighed at LEast a Ton. Well ANYway, he was AWfully Mean and BASHful because he didn't Even TELL me his last name. Isn't that just too DU Bious for Words? His FIRSt name was WALTER and when he said goodBYE I ALmost collAPsed. He walked away and (PLEase don't TELL him this because it REALLY wasn't poLITE — I mean Nlee girls are not supPOSEd to be so CU RiOUS and I WOULdn't want HIM to find it out for ALL the WORld. but I saw him go into that mySTERious house on SC'Hool Street. You know the one I mean — it's so RAVishingly FAScinating to Look at. HONestly I MUST be just BORing you to Death with this MANuscript, but he was so WONderful and OBLiging that I wonder if it would be TOO overWHElming to Ask you to Send me his AdDress so I can reLieve my CONscience by WRiting and THanking him for his aSTOU Nding poLITEness, I mean, I REALLY would be AWfully inDEbted to you.

ConfIDENTially yours,

(To avoid embarrassment the name is withheld by the Editor.)

And so it's over now, you say,

Well, I guess perhaps you're right.

Love seldom lasts more than a day,

And ecstasy a night.

Our little love has had its fling,

Our passion has burned low.

And in that case the wisest thing

Is just to say, "No go".

Besides, I've found another one,

Probably you have, too, —

And after all is said and done,

Why, I dare say she'll do.

1927 SUGGESTS

1. The recognition of the country's legal holidays.
2. A smoking room in Phillips, Bartlet, and Day Halls.
3. The abolition of Sunday Vespers.
4. More cutting privileges.
5. More power to the Senior Council.

"ADVICE"

When the waiter brings your check,
And you haven't any money,
Or the roommate happens in
While you're kissing his sweet honey —
Be nonchalant!

Now if a prof comes up to you
In one of his exams,
And asks about that open book
You're holding in your hands;
Don't get embarrassed, little one —
Reply it's all just good clean fun.
Don't let him get the best of you;
Grit your teeth and see it thru —
Be nonchalant!

NURSERY NONSENSE

Good Zeus and Charlie pound into my dome,
The glory that was Greece and also Rome;
But Claudie always spends his precious time
In teaching me the rudiments of rime,
While Freddie tries, with logic absolute,
Old Newton's laws of motion to refute;
Or yet again he tells me of his Ford,
And how she never balks when he's aboard.
In curves seducing Mike gives me instruction,
While Larry expounds the rules of reproduction.
But best of all, when I feel blue and morbid,
Is Al's deliverance from the base and sordid.

AS WE UNDERSTAND THEM

automobile — 20th century model of the old parlor sofa.

spree — something done by a man who has fallen behind in his drinking and then tries to make it up; also called a "bender".

bootlegger — a college graduate with lots of friends who know his first name and consult him about all the parties they give or go on.

suitcase — sometimes incorrectly called a bag — something in which almost anything is liable to be found.

fireplace — a modern convenience in prep school dormitories — They may also be used for fires.

buzzer — an instrument placed in all classrooms to wake students up in time for their next period recitations.

Scotch — a people of the British Isles. Also a drink used by our ancestors. It is now a colloquial expression applied to concoctions of benzine, wood alcohol, iodine, ether, and gasoline.

Laurence — a good town where many go wrong.

probation — a means of reminding students that they are still in school.

professor — the man whom one hates to meet in the dark.

textbooks — an extravagant waste of money for the sake of effect.

dormitory — a quiet place to rest, far away from the bright lights.

infirmary — a place where one goes to avoid regular school routine. Occasionally someone is taken sick there — then they are sent home.

colleqe — a place where one becomes broadminded to say nothing of sophisticated diploma — a sheepskin given by the faculty to a student in recognition of the fact that he has successfully avoided all their pitfalls.

Pointing out valve value

The Jenkins "Diamond" mark points out to an engineer a valve he can install with confidence. It identifies a genuine Jenkins—made by the original maker.

A genuine Jenkins means a valve made to the highest standards. The metal used is of the best, and is subjected to analyses by expert metallurgists before and after casting. Designs provide for strength where strength is needed, and each completed valve is tested to allow a wide safety margin before it leaves the Jenkins factory.

There is a genuine Jenkins for practically every valve requirement. At supply houses everywhere

Millions of fellows eat this great food, Grape-Nuts, every day

YOU couldn't imagine a more delicious food than Grape-Nuts.
Crisp, golden, nut-like kernels—filled with the wholesome tang that only Nature gives. What a wonderful flavor it has!

And Grape-Nuts contains nourishment your body must have for strength and vigorous, buoyant, good health. It gives you dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for heat and energy; iron for the blood; phosphorus for teeth and bones, protein for body-building; and vitamin-B. Eaten with milk or cream, Grape-Nuts provides a splendidly balanced ration.

Grape-Nuts is a crisp food—a food you will like to chew. What of that?
Just this! Your teeth and gums need exercise to help keep them firm, sound and healthy. Ask any dentist.

The best way to find out about Grape-Nuts is to eat it for yourself. Try it at the earliest opportunity!
